

Funding after age 70

About Keith

Keith retired at age 70 from a manufacturing company. He worked there for over 10 years and in that time was a key contributor to the company's success. He worked hard, did a lot for his company but never really gave much thought to saving for his retirement. Now age 74, Keith's former employer wants to reward him for his help in making the business so successful. The company has surplus cash in the company accounts and want to make a pension contribution of €120,000 for past service. Keith is not married and his only other pension benefit is a PRSA valued at €14,000.

The calculations

Keith's final salary at age 70	€42,000
As he had more than 10 years service at age 70, he was entitled to a pension of 2/3rds of his final salary	€28,000
This means Keith could have had a pension fund of €636,363	$€28,000 \div 4.4\%^* = €636,363$
Taking into account his existing PRSA, the company can make a contribution of €120,000 to an Executive Pension	$€636,363 - €14,000 = €622,363$

*Based on current market annuity rates. Single life, increasing at 3%, guaranteed period 5 years.

Outcome

- The company set up an Executive Pension for Keith and made a contribution of €120,000
- The scheme was retired immediately and Keith was able to take a tax free lump sum and transfer the remaining fund to an AMRF and ARF
- Keith's pension pot has been increased giving him a greater income in retirement
